The restaurant has a spacious 190 m² room, equipped with large 3-metre windows, which allow natural light to enter throughout the day. The 73 m² kitchen has enough space to be perfectly equipped, with a special area for the preparation of up to 20 paellas at the same time, making it ideal for events and large banquets. In addition, the property has 4 bathrooms, one of them adapted for people with reduced mobility and a private bathroom for staff.

The business offers several additional advantages, such as a large parking area, which can be expanded thanks to the adjoining land that is included in the sale. On one side of the terrace, there is a small room with a bar and smoke outlet ready to offer an additional service on the terrace, perfect to enjoy all year round, thanks to the side awnings. All this combined with the option to build up to 12 rooms on the top floor, makes it an excellent option for those interested in rural tourism, a booming sector in this area.

In addition to the restaurant's wide range of services, the surroundings of Anna are ideal for outdoor activities, such as canyoning and abseiling. The Albufera, with its stunning nature, is a point of attraction for tourists, ensuring a steady flow of customers. The area is also known for its historical heritage, with monuments such as the Palace of the Counts of Cervellón, the hermitage of the Santísimo Cristo de la Providencia, and various local festivals that attract thousands of people every year. This restaurant is not only an excellent business opportunity, but also a strategic investment in a region with great tourist potential.

The restaurant building has a total of 323 m² built on a plot of 2,901 m². It is sold next to an adjoining plot of land and in total both plots add up to an area of 4,112 m².
